Palm Tran Division Director Named to Public Transportation Leadership Group

PALM BEACH COUNTY – Palm Tran Director of Support Services and Equal Employment Opportunity (EEO) Officer Charles Frazier is among a select group of individuals nationwide participating in the American Public Transportation Association's (APTA) Leadership Class of 2018.

Frazier is one of 25 public transportation officials selected for the year-long program designed to help participants develop their skills and prepare them for senior and executive leadership roles.

"I'm honored and humbled to be recognized by APTA at the national level," Frazier said. "I'm eager to learn from seasoned transit professionals and adapt their successful tactics to enhancing Palm Tran, as well as share my knowledge and experiences," he added.

Frazier will also be introduced at APTA's annual meeting in Atlanta in October. APTA Leadership Class members participate in an intensive program that includes skill-building workshops, conferences, executive roundtables, team leadership projects, teleconferences, online meetings, and web-based events.
